If you do not re-subscribe to the SSS Service within that time, we will delete your SSS Account and any related information to the extent that it is not used as set out in clause 6.1.

6.3 Data retention Principles with respect to consent: As outlined in clause 5.3 we might be processing your data on the basis of consent. In such event we process data only as long as the consent is valid and to the extent that the data is necessary for the purposes with respect to which we are permitted and/or required to process data.

6.4 Where appropriate we will encrypt, pseudonymize, anonymize and/or segregate information so that we may make use of it in a manner that avoids unnecessary identification, in the interest of protecting your privacy and enhancing security practices.

7. Security

Maintaining the security and integrity of your personal data is a high priority and we endeavour to maintain appropriate technical and organizational measures to secure the integrity of information, using accepted technological standards to prevent unauthorized access to or disclosure of your personal data and to protect them from misuse, loss, alteration or destruction.

8. Cookies

8.1 In order to ensure that the SSS Website, SSS App and SSS Service work properly, to provide you with a personalised experience, we and certain of our third-party service providers may set cookies or similar technologies (such as in particular web beacons, pixels and advertising identifiers) on your device, subject to your consent where relevant. A cookie is a small text file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device when you visit the website. It enables the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as session status, language, font size and other display preferences) over a period of time, so you don't have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to the site or browse from one page to another.

8.2 The SSS Website uses two basic cookie types: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are temporary files stored on the user's end device until the user logs out, leaves the website or closes the software (web browser). Persistent cookies are stored on the user's end device for the time specified in the parameters of the cookies or until deleted by the user.

- 8.3 In many cases, the default settings of the web browsing software (web browser) enable cookie storage on the user's end device. You can delete or block cookies from being set in your web browser settings or relevant software. Cookies set by SSS will likely be labelled as first party cookies, and those set by our partners will be labelled third party cookies. Certain parts of the SSS Website, the SSS Service or the SSS App may not work properly if first party cookies are blocked or deleted.
- 8.4 The types of cookies and the purposes for which they are used on the SSS Website and the SSS App include:
- 8.4.1 strictly necessary cookies, which enable use of the services available on the SSS Website and SSS App, for example cookies used for authentication of users and cookies that ensure security;
 - 8.4.2 performance cookies, which help us collect information about how the SSS Website, the SSS Service and the SSS App are used, so that we can perform analytics and improve their performance;
 - 8.4.3 functionality cookies, which remember choices made by the user and personalise the interface and allow enhanced functionality and personalisation of the SSS Website, the SSS Service and the SSS App; and
 - 8.4.5 targeting cookies and advertising IDs for delivering adverts more relevant to users and their interests, as well as ad conversion tracking; these cookies are mainly set by our advertising partners.
 - 8.4.6 Third parties that engage in online behavioural advertising, or that provide such services to us as service providers, may offer additional control over this practice via a self-regulatory body called the European Interactive Digital Advertising Alliance. For further details regarding the collection of information by third-party advertising companies or to exercise choices over online behavioural advertising practices, visit <https://youronlinechoices.eu/>.

9. Changes to this Policy and final provisions

We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we do so, we will post the revised policy on SSS and will inform users of such amendments and of their effective date.

In case of discrepancy between this document and the SSS App end user licence agreement, the provisions of this Privacy Policy will prevail.

This version of Privacy Policy applies from 12 January 2021.
